

3 Days Zanzibar Island

At a Glance:

Zanzibar Island is a Tanzanian archipelago off the coast of East Africa. On its main island, Unguja, familiarly called Zanzibar, is Stone Town, a historic trade centre with Swahili and Islamic influences. It's winding lanes present minarets, carved doorways and 19th century landmarks such as the House of Wonders, a former sultan's palace. The northern villages Nungwi and Kendwa have wide beaches lined with hotels.

What makes Zanzibar special?

What makes Zanzibar different to other tropical island destinations is the eclectic mix of sun, sea, sand and spice. But there is much more, vivid history, culture and a variety of excursions that makes this one of the most popular all round beach destinations for people of all ages and interests. Apart from this, a whole range of endangered species can be found in the warm tropical waters around the archipelago, from bottlenose dolphins and green turtles to the once assumed extinct coelacanth! Zanzibar also hosts annual festivals and events drawing people from all over East Africa and the world.
